Rally at the U.S. Mission to the UN New York

February 8th

12:00 noon

U.S. Mission to the UN

E. 45th Street between Third and Lexington Avenues

In light of the mounting bloodshed that is being inflicted upon the innocent civilians in Darfur, West Sudan, and the occasion of the United States holding the chair of the United Nations (UN) Security Council during the month of February, it is imperative that we in the New York area make our voices heard to stop the genocide taking place in Darfur.

Africa Action is sponsoring a rally in New York on Wednesday, February 8th at 12 noon, opposite the temporary offices of the U.S. Mission to the UN on 45th Street, between Third and Lexington Avenues.

The focus of the rally is to bring pressure to bear on the U.S. government to present a resolution to the Security Council authorizing a substantial UN peacekeeping force in Darfur. This is the only measure that can protect the desperate people of Darfur at the present time. The New York Times reported on January 28 that, "Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice expressed support for the idea this month." Let us send the message that the Bush Administration must make this a reality.
