

Two Years Too Many:
Break the Deadlock on Darfur
Rally & Non-Violent Civil Disobedience

Join Africa Action, activists from around the country, religious leaders, students, and members of the Darfuri and Sudanese community at a gathering to mark the second anniversary of the Bush Administration's declaration that genocide is occurring in Darfur, Sudan .

Date: September 9, 2006

Location: Lafayette Park & White House Sidewalk
16 & H Street N.W., Washington D.C.

Time: 12:00pm (noon)

You can participate in this event without risking arrest.*

Co-Sponsored by: American Jewish World Service, NAACP, Unitarian Universalist Service Committee, International Research Foundation, Sudan Peace Advocates Network, Darfur Peace and Development, , Africa Faith & Justice Network

This rally has been endorsed by: Members of the Congressional Black Caucus

A Tale of Two Genocides

Rwanda Darfur

The U.S. Has the Power to Protect !

Contact us: mobilize@africaaction.org (202) 546-7961